The primary reason for the allowance of claims 11-13,35,36 is the inclusion of the following limitation "providing said first data to said memory cell corresponding to said selected row and selected column, where said first data is provided at a lower voltage than a voltage to be used to provide test data to cells not in the fringe region, where said first data is provided at a shorter write release time than a write release time to be used to provide test data to memory cells not in the fringe region".

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 14-31 is the inclusion of the following limitation "determining if said first plurality of memory cells are weak cells using at least one test parameter that is different than a test parameter to be used for memory cells not in the fringe region".

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 32 is the inclusion of the following limitation "test said selected memory cell using at least one test parameter that is different than a test parameter to be used for memory cells not in the fringe region".
